Dear Editor,

On the evening of the "Fantastic Parade" hosted by Dillsburg, a "spooky" thing happened! Friends visiting from Halifax asked 3 different policemen at the parade to direct them to Third Street. Each one told them that Dillsburg has no Third Street.

Now, I beg to differ, very strongly with that! Our family has lived on Third Street in Dillsburg for 26 years. We raised 7 children there. There are six homes on Third Street and a total of ten people call Third Street, Dillsburg home.

The newest house on Third Street is the home of one of Dillsburg's finest. I would wonder how he feels to read that his home is on a non-existent street.

It also makes me wonder what would happen in case of an emergency if I should call 911 and be told, "I'm sorry, Maam, but Dillsburg has no Third Street." The night of that happening is not only spooky, but frightening.

I would suggest to our hard working policemen and my that they might hire for a special event such as our "Fantastic Parade" that in the future when asked a question you have no answer for to simply say, "Sorry, I don't know." Third Street is a small, very lonely street and I for one am glad it really does exist.

I'm very happy to call it home.

PeeWees shut out St. Josephs

by Daryl Dininger

On Sunday, October 28, the Northern PeeWees improved their record to 5 wins and 4 losses. The Polar Bears defeated the Chargers 14 to 0.

After losing last week to West Perry in an upset, the Bears finally got back on the winning track. The PeeWees who were struggling in the second half of the season, turned in a solid game against St. Joe's. Northern's defense was spectacular as they held the Chargers to 23 yards total offense. Scott Magee led the Bears with 14 tackles; Ryan Napoli, Jason Gates followed with 11 tackles; Dustin Kipe, Brad Perva, Brandy Repman, 9 tackles; Brock Benson, Tom Weiner, 8 tackles; Mike Madoni, Nick O'Connor, Tim Anthony, 6 tackles; Toni Weiner intercepted a St. Joe's pass and returned it for 32 yards as time ran out in the first half. Jason Gates recovered a Charger fumble.

Offensively, the Polar Bears had a big day! Jason Gates pounded the Chargers defense for 67 yards and a touchdown. Tom Weiner rushed for 42 yards and Backfield teammate Brock Benson scampered for 40 yards rushing. Quarterback Brad Perva rushed for 27 yards, a touchdown and 2 points after touchdowns. Ryan Napoli who starts at center was moved to tailback late in the game and rushed for a surprising 34 yards on 3 carries. As the game was in the 4th quarter, the offensive line of Northern kept the ball on the ground eating up the clock. Zack Menovich, Mike Szamprruch, Josh Ormsbee, Gregg Reid, Doug Pressel provided Northern's backfield with big holes to run through.

Head Coach Darryl Dissinger said, "Everyone played a solid game. The team played as a team today."

This win was very important to the PeeWees as they must win next week at Seven Sorrows to move into the playoffs. Game time is at 5 p.m. Saturday night, November 3. Good luck PeeWees, see you in the playoffs!

Is your Home Hazardous?

Some of the most hazardous chemicals in the worlds are right in your own backyard and under your sink and in your garage and laundry room, etc.

Oven cleaners and chlorine bleach; pesticides and weed killers; oil-based paints and stains - these and many other household products contain chemicals that can be hazardous to you and our environment.

So it's important to reduce your use of these products. Buy only what you need, use it up, or share with neighbors. Look for less toxic alternatives, too. You'll reduce your risk from hazardous chemicals, and our environment won't get sick with simple contaminers. For more information, call Jeanie Peken at 697-1567.

Household Hazwaste Collection Days are in October. Start saving your hazwastes now.
